WASHINGTON CITY:

FRIDAY NOVEMBER 10, 1865. BEREADING MATTER ON EVERY PAGE SEE OUTSIDE FOR INTERESTING TELE-GRAPHIC AND OTHER MATTER.

TELEGRAMS, &c.

The surgeon of the Atalanta states that the majority of her passengers were emigrants from Switzerland and the Southern part of Germany, and that they came by the way of Paris (where the cholera was raging) to Havre, and while there several died in boarding houses, attended by the Government physicians. Unusual facilities were afforded by the officials for their shipment, and the anxiety to place them on shipboard was so great as to cause inquiries on the part of the officers of the ship, who look upon the persons at Havre as responsible for the malady on board the vessel. Since the passengers have been removed from the ship but few cases have occurred, and those of the mildest form. Hopes are entertained of the speedy disappearance of the malady.

Colonel Fullerton has issued a circular reminding freedmen in Louisiana that the time is approaching to make contracts for labor for another year. Well known planters have adopted a plan to get freedmen for picking cotton with success, paying each one every night for the cotton picked during the day. This is important, as many of the cotton-fields are unpicked, the freedmen refusing to work.

In the Harris divorce case, in Connecticut, Judge Phelps has rendered a decision granting a divorce to Jonathan A. Harris against Mrs. Jane M. Harris. He gets a complete divorce, and the custody of all the children, and she gets no alimony. By the laws of Connecticut. both can marry, if they choose.

The overland stage was attacked by six robbers near Virginia City on Monday night, who took all the valuables of the express and passengers. Among the passengers was J. L. Batchelder, of Boston, who was robbed of $1,300. No one was injured.

Information from Mississippi states that Governor Humphreys has called upon the people of the State to organize companies to aid the civil authorities in maintaining order, and cautions them against oppressing the freed-Captain J. O. Remmington, quartermaster at Chattanooga, was robbed of $20,000, by burglars breaking open the safe in the countingroom. Suspicion rests on four persons who have been arrested. A large mail for the Russian Telegraph exploring party was lost in the wreck of the steamer Brother Jonathan on the Pacific A State convention of colored men met in Poughkeepsie, New York, on Wednesday for the purpose of advancing the interests of their people in the State. The Austin, Texas, papers say a State Con-vention will be called about the 1st February. Trade between Mexico and Texas is increasing, and promises to be very large. Mexican dates to the 18th have been received. The general inability of the Juarists to compete with the Imperialists is becoming daily more apparent.

The last rail on the Oswego and Rome rail-road, New York, was laid on Wednesday.

NORTH CAROLINA. RALEIGH, Nov. 8.—The State election took place to-day. Twenty-one precincts give Holden 1,689 and Worth 3,015 votes. These returns are mostly from along the line of railway, where the secession feeling predominates. From present indications, all the ultra Union men are beaten for Congress, and none who can take the oath will be elected. With the present meagre returns at hand, no correct conclusion can be formed as to the result of the Governor's election.

CAUTION TO BOTTLERS, DEALERS IN BOT TLES. AND THE PUBLIC.

This is to git notice that in the case of RILEY A. SHINN,) Supreme Court of the Dis-In Equity No. 524. JOHN COOK. being a proceeding for an injunction against John

Cook, Proprietor of "Green Spring Brewery," to restrain him from using and appropriating the bottles of Riley A. Shinn, and marked with his name, and that of the late firm of Arny & Shinn, a decree was, by the Court, on the 12th day of October, A. D., 1865, granted, enjoining John Cook "from taking, collecting, receiving, and using the bottles of Riley A. I call the attention of Bottlers, and dealers in Bottles particularly, to the above decision of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia, and hereby warm them and all other interested persons, that I will proceed in like manner against any person so-offending. Herrick, Property Clerk of the Metropolitan Police, requiring them to retain possession of money, jewelry, and other effects of Daniel Miller, alias Allen, alias Harris, who was arrested by detectives Kelly and Bigley, and is now in jail for trial on charges of fraud upon the Bank of Commerce, of Georgetown, and Stewart & Co., bankers, of this city. The prisoner is charged with stealing $7,802.88 from the Ohio Valley Bank, on June 8th, 1864, and the only valley Bank, on June 8th, 1804, and the money and effects attached in the hands of the officers is claimed as part of the proceeds of that theft. It is presumed that before this claim can be satisfied, the claims of the Bank of Commerce for $1,000; and of Steward Commerce art & Co. for over $600, must be met. As to the jewelry, it is strongly suspected that the splen-did diamond pin and ring are not his, but belong to one of his wives, the last one, and that she will claim them. The requisition from in the county jail. Yesterday, Mr. Starbuck, the police photographer, took a copy of his mug to adorn the Rogues' Gallery, and it is numbered 288, where those who have been bitten by him may have a chance to recognize his features. This is easily accounted for by the cessation of the necessity for Government transports. Those now in port are engaged in the regular trade of the port, most of them in the coal trade. The coal agents were for some weeks unable to obtain suitable vessels to transport coal to distant depots. Recently the supply of transports has improved, and the shipments have increased, still they have need for more, and with the orders on their
